VOLUME II
HISTORY AND INDECIES

INTRODUCTION: Choruses have been a part of Salvation Army worship since the earliest days of the movement. Songs of praise and testimony expressed the joyful faith of the Salvationists. Songs of invitation called sinners to come to Christ, and songs of worship brought all into the very presence of God.

The Church has sung since its earliest days in the first Century when the Apostle Paul encouraged those early Christians to sing psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs during their worship. This practice has been maintained throughout the history of the Christian Church, so it is of little surprise that the fledgling Christian Mission, which later became The Salvation Army would follow suit.

Salvation Army song doesn't just come from the soldiers in the ranks of the Army, it is drawn from the historical hymns of the Church, and Christian musicians from many denominations. At times, the music for songs written by Salvationists would come from the popular music of the day, often tunes that the writers of those songs remembered from their days in the pubs and taverns.

It was important that Salvationists be able to learn and sing the songs they sang from memory. Many of the early-day Salvationists were illiterate, and therefore, simply reading the words was an impossibility. So, catchy tunes with simple words that spoke of the love and grace of God and expressed the joy of Salvationist faith were the ones that got the most use, and later would become the most beloved, even today.

Over the years, choruses of songs, and 'stand-alone' choruses were written. These could be taught to children and could be used not just for work with young people, but also in the senior meeting where they were often used to call sinners to the altar, or as musical interludes during times of testimony.

A number of years ago, I had the idea to collect choruses that we have used in The Salvation Army. Originally, I looked through old copies of "The Musical Salvationist" looking for choruses that we had used in the Corps, as well as choruses that might be useful in worship. That idea didn't last very long, and eventually, I began to collect choruses from various sources published by The Salvation Army.

In 2018, I decided to start working on "The Chorus File." Unlike the first idea I had, this one would be one file that contained choruses from all the Salvation Army Song Books divided into a section for melody lines with words where possible, and a section for sets of words for which I have been unable to identify or find a tune. After three years of work, I have so far collected over 1250 choruses from the Song Book Chorus Sections, various Salvation Army sources, as well as choruses others have written and allowed me to include in the 'File,' as well as choruses I have written myself.

So, that explains "The Chorus File – Volume I." But what is Volume II?

The main source of choruses in Volume I are the Chorus Sections of The Salvation Army Song Books from 1899, 1930, 1953 and 1987. Also included are the 1945 Chorus Book, and the Chorus Section of the American "Songs for Men." This volume will give a short historical description of these Chorus Sections as well as an index from each of them. So basically, what this volume includes is are the indexes from all the major sources for "The Chorus File," (not an amalgamated index) and a bit of an explanation about each Chorus Section.

Like "The Chorus File, Volume I," this Volume is a reference edition. I simply wanted to create a volume with the indexes from all the Song book Chorus Sections that could be used as a 'one stop' index for choruses. Of course, since there are a number of choruses we have that have not been published in any of these Chorus Sections, this will not be complete index of choruses.

And while I am creating this volume mainly for myself, I can't guarantee that I will not share it with others, that's why there's an introduction. And if you know me, then you would probably expect me to do something like this anyway, so, here ya go!

The final section of this work will also include the index from Volume I, and since that one changes, this volume will also change. Therefore, check the date to make sure you have the latest version. I don't anticipate updating this volume daily, weekly, monthly or maybe even yearly, I just work on it when I work on it. So, I'll probably update it when I have done major work to Volume I.

If you're reading this, then you have a copy, and if you have a copy, I hope and pray that the information you find here will be useful in whatever ministry you currently serve or be a blessing to you personally.

Blessings,
Eric

SECTION I

1899 Song Book Chorus Section

While The Christian Mission, and later, The Salvation Army had published Hymn and Song Books practically since its inception, 1899 was the first Song Book that included a Chorus Section. The choruses in the Chorus Section were either 'stand-alone' choruses, or choruses that had been extracted from the songs they originally appeared with.

1900 saw a third volume of "Salvation Army Music" that contained the music for the songs in the Song Book. This volume only included 303 tunes and was later expanded to 316 tunes. There were tunes for most of the songs in the Song Book, but no music for any of the choruses in the Chorus Section. Unlike the Song Section that included a reference to find the music for the songs, the Chorus Section included no such reference, so, a bit of research was required to find a tune for all the choruses. As part of this project, a Tune Book for Choruses in the 1899 Song Book has been produced and is available at Archive.org.

This system of not providing music for all the choruses is one that will be used in the 1930 and 1953 editions of the Song book. (More on that later.)

This Chorus Section contains 216 Choruses divided into five topical sections:

1) Salvation	1 – 51
2) Experience	52 – 106
3) Holiness	107 – 168
4) War	169 – 201
5) Heaven	202 – 216

SECTION II

1930 Song Book Chorus Section

In 1928 The Salvation Army in London produced a new Band Tune Book for Congregational Singing. This was followed by a Piano edition of the Tune Book, and a new edition of the Song Book in 1930. While the 1928 edition of the Tune Book contained a small section of 27 choruses, they were not the tunes for all the choruses in the new Song Book.

This Chorus Section presents the largest collection of choruses in any of the Song Books. There are 730 choruses in eight sections (see below). The reason there are so many choruses in this section is that many of the choruses from the songs in the Song Section were also included in the Chorus Section. A reference to the song in the Song Section, where applicable is given to the right at the top of each chorus.

While this duplication of choruses provides music from the Tune Book for a number of choruses, there is still no music for any chorus not 'harvested' from the Song Section. However, with a bit of research, the Chorus File contains a tune for each chorus, and a companion Tune Book for Choruses in the 1930 Song Book has been produced as a part of this project.

The choruses are divided into the following sections:

1) Prayer	1 – 68
2) Salvation and Invitation	69 – 222
3) Consecration	223 – 270
4) Sanctification	271 – 332
5) Faith and Trust	333 – 421
6) Praise and Testimony	422 – 582
7) War	583 – 660
8) Heaven	661 – 730

SECTION III

1945 Salvation Army Chorus Book

In 1945, The Salvation Army in London produced a book of 518 Choruses including a melody line which would serve as a 'Tune Book' for choruses. This would give pianists and song leaders a tune to follow when playing or leading choruses they may not be familiar with. There was no 4-part harmony, nor was there a Band edition.

Since this book was published between Song Books, reference numbers for it were not included in printings of later editions of the 1930 Song Book but were included in the 1953 Song Book Chorus Section. While research into what choruses from the 1930 Song Book were included in the 1945 Chorus Book, it is feasible to think that it was useful even with that edition of the Song Book Chorus Section.

The choruses in the book are divided into eight sections, but not the same sections that are found in the 1930 Song Book Chorus Section, as follows:

1) Salvation and Invitation	1 – 111
2) Prayer	112 – 192
3) Consecration and Sanctification	193 – 267
4) Faith and Trust	268 – 331
5) Praise and Testimony	332 – 435
6) Service for God	436 – 470
7) Heaven	471 – 493
8) The Young People	494 – 518

No height too steep ... 8
No more, . . . He remembers sins 370
No, no, . . . I count no sacrifice 223
No! No! nothing do I bring 77
Not my own 224
Now I am glad and free ... 427
Now my heart is glad ... 508

O Jesus, be Thyself to me 190
O Jesus, Lord and Saviour 193
O Man of Galilee 148
O Thou God of wondrous merit 115
Oh, be saved 80
Oh, Calvary! dark Calvary 153
Oh, come to the Cross ... 134
Oh, far whiter than the snow 203
Oh, for a deeper 116
Oh, for the hallowing flame! 157
Oh, give way, sinner ... 91
Oh, Hallelujah, yes, 'tis Heaven 348
Oh, I'll take another look... 249
Oh, it is wonderful... ... 366
Oh, lay it down 90
Oh, let the dear Master come in! 73
Oh, pour it in my soul! ... 157
Oh, remember . . . all a loving 66
Oh, save me, dear Lord ... 110
Oh, seek that Beautiful Stream 73
Oh, speak . . . while before Thee 156
Oh, swing them open, angels 479

Oh, that will be glory for me 478
Oh, the crowning day is coming 488
Oh, the dearest, the fairest 439
Oh, the touch of His hand 302
Oh, 'tis coming 123
Oh, touch the hem... ... 100
Oh, 'twas love 98
Oh, what a hiding-place ... 304
Oh, what a Redeemer ... 333
Oh, why did He love me so? 409
Oh, won't it be grand ... 491
Of all names, the one I love best 401
Old things are passed away 346
On Calvary, dark Calvary 47
On the palms of His hands 381
On the sweet Eden Shore 480
One in aim and purpose ... 515
Only a step 67
Only Jesus will I know ... 364
Only one intention... ... 243
Open the windows of Heaven 181
Out from His wounded side 12
Over me, . . . His banner over me 428
Over me . . . it is flowing ... 322

Peace is mine 429
Peace of the tranquil heart 268
Peace, peace, wonderful peace 424
Perfectly cleansed 216
Picture to-night 481
Pour Thy Spirit 171
Power, power, power Divine! 124
Praise Him with melody ... 414
Praise, oh, praise Him ... 355
Pray, sinner, pray 109
Pray without ceasing ... 285
Prayer changes things ... 321
Prayer changes things in the morning 284
Prayer gently lifts me ... 173
Precious, cleansing Flow ... 55
Precious Jesus, how we love Thee 495
Prepare mē 84
Publish the story 4

Reckon on me 253
Reign, oh, reign my Saviour 129
Remember me . . . O, Lord 99
Remember me, O Mighty One 83
Revive Thy work, O Lord 192
Rooted and grounded in love 344

Saviour, dear Saviour, draw nearer 177
Saviour Divine, come, cleanse 184
Saviour . . . hear my humble cry 121
Saviour, my all I am bringing 239
Saviour, my all I surrender 234
Scatter a little sunshine ... 461
Sealed by Thy Spirit ... 230
Search me, O God 184
Send a new touch of power 135
Shall you, shall I?... ... 487
Shining all the time ... 501
Shining, shining, I'll shine for Jesus 512
Show Thy power in me ... 185
Show Thyself to me ... 185
Showers of blessing ... 166
Since Jesus came into my heart 407
Sing a song of happiness ... 500
Sing as you scale the mountain 376
Sing on through sunny days 347
Sing, sing Hosanna ... 435
Smile and set the world a-smiling 509
So, cheer up, comrades .. 292
So, if the sky is dark ... 416
So I'll cherish the old rugged Cross 398
So think as the days ... 13
Soldiers of coming days ... 502
Some day I'll see His blessed face 489
Someone . . . Oh, let that someone 34
Speak, Lord, . . . For thy servant 120
Speak once again, Lord ... 158
Speak, Saviour, speak ... 170
Speak to us, Lord 496
Spirit of God, oh, hear us pray 122
Stepping on together ... 451
"Suffer the children to come" 511
Sunshine . . . Shining along our pathway 384
Sweet Spirit of Christ ... 159
Sweet Summerland, at God's 492
Sweet Summerland, so fair 503
Swing wide the door of your heart 18

Take Jesus to all the world 442
Take me, make me all Thine own! 150
Take the world, but give me Jesus 213
"Take up thy cross and follow Me" 254
Teach me how to love Thee 179
Tell it again 2
Tell Jesus everything, for He is 43
Tell Jesus everything, To Him 86
Tell me the story of Jesus... 37
That old, old story ... 59
That was a wonderful day 385
The cleansing Stream I see 204
The cross is not greater ... 325
The Flag that guides ... 460
The God of our fathers ... 290
The path is very narrow ... 209
The Precious Blood is flowing 202
The Unseen Presence ... 147
The world for God ... 217
The world is needing us ... 438
The wounds of Christ are open 71
Thee, only Thee 210
Then if a soldier you would be 454
Then who wouldn't be a Soldier? 447
There is grace enough for me 275
There is not in my heart left 241
There is sunlight 390
There'll be no sorrow ... 493
There never was a better Army 470
There's a sparkling, jewelled crown 482
There's joy in following Jesus 374
There's room enough ... 7
They are nailed to the Cross 39
They that turn many ... 443
Thine, Thine, I will be Thine 267
This one thing I know ... 360
'Tis grand news we're offering 441
'Tis wonderful to know ... 283
Thou art enough for me ... 274
Thou art the Way 222
Thou hast the power to heal me 250
Thou knowest all things ... 220
Thou wilt keep him ... 318
Though your sins be as scarlet 87
Through all my days ... 246
Thy will shall be fulfilled ... 242
To feel Thy power... ... 233
To heal the broken heart ... 102
To Thy Cross I come, Lord 79
To-day and every day ... 392
Touch me again . . . wonderful Healer 113
Touch me, dear Saviour ... 145
True and unflinching ... 465
Trust and obey 297
Trust in God and do your duty 277
Trusting as the moments fly 298
Trusting Thee ever ... 293
'Twas there my Saviour died 81

Under the Blood and Fire Flag 455
Up in the Golden City ... 471

"Verily, Verily, I say unto you!" 54
Walk with me 187
We are marching on ... 446
We feel, we know, indeed, we're sure 517
We have an anchor ... 317
We have a song for the days 299
We'll never let the Old Flag fall 452
We'll praise Him for ever... 437
We ought to pray much more 164
We're gaily singing ... 513
We're marching through Immanuel's ground ... 484
We're on the homeward trail 339
We're the coming Army ... 518
We shall conquer all ... 448
We shall gain a crown ... 474
What shall the answer be? 105
Whatsoever things are true 211
When He is come to you ... 458
When in the darkness ... 331
When the Lord comes in ... 388
When the people of the world 207
When they come seeking Thee 114
When you feel downhearted 272
When you know Him ... 50
Where He leads me I will follow 245
While I speak to Thee ... 132
While the light from Heaven 72
While the Spirit passes by... 125

While the years roll on ... 483
Whisper a prayer in the morning 284
Wide, wide as the ocean ... 350
Will that someone be you ? 36
Will you take Jesus to-day ? 62
Win another 440
With a smile on your face 329
With Jesus so near me ... 308
Who's that knocking ? ... 17
Wonderful mercy 368
Wonderful Name 30
Wonderful place called Calvary 103
Wonderful, wonderful Jesus 379
Wondrous love, oh, mighty ocean 421
Wounded for me 332

Yellow star and red and blue 445
Yes, Jesus waits to pardon you 95
Yesterday, to-day, for ever 286
You can tell out the sweet story 449
You'll reap whatsoever you sow 61
You may be saved ... 33
You need Christ ! 32
You've carried your burden 21
Your task is calling you ... 499

SECTION IV

1953 Song Book Chorus Section

War-time restrictions were still in effect in Britain, so a new Tune Book for the 1953 Song Book was not produced. Instead, the 1928 Tune Book had been supplemented in 1941, and 1961. This was the first time that the Tune Book contained a tune for every Song in the Song book, but still did not have music for all the choruses contained in it.

While there wasn't an officially produced Tune Book for choruses, the 1953 Chorus Section contained reference numbers for the 1945 Chorus Book when a chorus was contained in that book, and not all of them were. In 1980, the USA Central Territory School for Officer Training produced a "Tune Book for Choruses in the Salvation Army Song Book" as a fundraising project for World Services.

This 1980 "Tune Book for Choruses" contained at least a melody line for each chorus, with many having a 4-part harmony arrangement. It also included a short paragraph about the origin of each chorus along the same lines as "The Companion to the Song Book" which had been published in 1961.

This Chorus Section contains 457 choruses, again in eight sections as follows:

1) Salvation and Invitation	1 – 67
2) Holiness	68 – 117
3) Prayer	118 – 174
4) Faith	175 – 226
5) Experience and Testimony	227 – 347
6) Praise	348 – 385
7) Warfare	386 – 441
8) Heaven	442 - 457

SECTION V

1961 Songs for Men

"Songs for Men" is a unique Song Book in Salvation Army terms. The book was published by the Salvation Army's National Headquarters in the United States for use in Adult Rehabilitation Centers which were then known as "Men's Social Centers" and Harbor Light Corps.

Being an American publication, the Song Section contained both words and music which was arranged for Male Voices by Erik Leidzen. The Song Section contains both standard Hymns for congregational singing, and a section for Male Chorus. The book also contains 107 choruses, and like the International English Song Book, there is no music for the choruses, and reference numbers for the 1945 Chorus Book are included where applicable.

The choruses are divided into the same eight sections as the Song Book, as follows:

1) Salvation and Invitation	1 – 21
2) Holiness	22 – 30
3) Prayer	31 – 43
4) Faith	44 – 54
5) Experience and Testimony	55 – 83
6) Praise	84 – 93
7) Warfare	94 – 102
8) Heaven	103 – 107

65 A never failing friend
30 All there is of me, Lord
94 And we'll roll the old chariot along
106 At the end of our journey

8 Back to the old paths of righteousness
84 Beautiful Christ
40 Breathe upon me, even me
59 By the pathway of duty
9 By the way, by the way of the cross

55 Can you wonder why it is I love Him
87 Christ is all
60 Christ is the answer
53 Clouds will change to sunshine
33 Come, beautiful Christ
23 Come into my heart, O Spirit Divine
4 Come with thy sin

2 Deep and wide
13 Don't turn Him away

43 Enter . . . Right into my heart
107 Ever near to bless and cheer

64 Follow . . . I will follow Jesus
58 Following Jesus, ever day by day
14 For God so loved the world

62 Glory to God, He has ransomed me
47 God can and will
19 God is near thee
48 God will take care
63 Gone is my burden
50 Got any rivers you think

73 He came right down to me
52 He cannot forget me
1 He is able, abundantly able
77 He is mine
93 He will hand me the bounty down
49 He will keep you from falling
92 He's the same today
85 How I love to sing

97 I am a soldier, glory to God
32 I believe God answers prayer
51 I believe in the Word of God
5 I do believe, I will believe
46 I have a pilot who guides me
10 I know a fount
45 I know the Lord will make a way
104 I shall know Him
34 I want to live right
96 I want to tell you
61 I was wandering in the wilderness

12 If you want joy, real joy
101 I'll be true, Lord, to Thee
100 I'll stand for Christ
20 I'm coming dear Lord to Thee
83 I'm on my way to the Gloryland
27 In me, Lord
78 In my heart today
98 In the ranks of the dear old Army
36 In Thee, O Lord

90 Jesus of Galilee

28 Launch out into the deep

95 Make Jesus King
26 Make me a channel of blessing
41 Meet my need, Lord
79 My sins went rolling away

71 Now my heart is glad

105 O Beulah land, sweet Beulah
18 O lay it down
3 O save me, Dear Lord
15 Out from His wounded side

66 Peace, peace, sweet peace

86 Sing when the way is bright
37 Sweet Spirit of Christ

42 Teach me how to love Thee
6 That means me, that means me
74 The Cross is not greater
68 The path is very narrow
102 The world for God
7 The wounds of Christ are open
25 There is a balm in Gilead
91 There's a wonderful name
88 There's joy in following
44 Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace
17 Though your sins be as scarlet
39 To be like Jesus
16 To heal the broken heart
69 Today, and every day

35 Walk with me . . . all the way
81 We'll sing in the morning
11 What shall the answer be
22 Where He leads me I will follow
38 Whisper a prayer in the morning
103 Wonderful Saviour, wonderful Friend

56 You can tell out the sweet story
99 Your task is calling you
21 You've carried your burden

Chorus File "March Index"

Some of the choruses that appear in this collection were used in various marches over the years. While the choruses may have fallen out of use, the Marches haven't, (and vice-versa) and so, I included some choruses used in some Marches. (This is not an exhaustive list and is based primarily on whether or not I remember what March has what chorus in it, or I happen to find one as I go through my library!) This index will help you find them.

NOTE: At this time, there is no index of chorus arrangements, or choruses used in the various other band pieces (ie: selections or solos).

NOTE: Marches still in manuscript (unpublished) form are not included in this index.

Various Song and Chorus Sheets from Corps, Divisions and Territories have also been used in this compilation. To list all of them would not only be exhaustive, but impractical.

The indexes prepared by Simon Richardson (UK), the Canadian Territorial Music Department, and SAMusicIndex.com have been indispensable resources for determining the first publication of choruses found in this publication. And, the Band Journal Index prepared by Willi Erzberger of the Zurich Central Hall Corps in Switezrland, as well as SAMusicIndex.com have been indispensible for doing the Band Journal cross-references.

Some items were hard to locate, even with all the indexes I have at my disposal. I greatly appreciate the assistance of Dianne Edwards, the former Territorial Music Archivist for the Australian (Eastern) Territory for her help in tracking down those 'hard-to-find' pieces.

Another person to thank is Rhonda Bonifield, who, along with other members of her family, are also collecting choruses.

Facebook has proven to be a wonderful resource, especially the group Salvation Army Chorus Time (Which I help Administrate). Not only have they mentioned and quoted choruses I know, but also ones I don't know. They have also provided music for a number of choruses, and for their assistance with this project I am eternally grateful. I especially thank KJ Dee, Marc Harry and William Ticehurst who helped provide music for choruses from the group.

The Library of Congress' (Washington D.C., USA) digital sheet music collection has been an indispensable resource for public domain popular music which some of the choruses were set to.
